C. Market Review

The 6 months period to July 2022 saw the start of interest rates normalization by countries worldwide in effort to tame inflation. After nearly 2 years of low interest rate following four Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") cuts by Bank Negara Malaysia ("BNM") between January 2020 and July 2020 to a low of 1.75% to ease the impact of Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("Covid-19"), BNM commenced its interest rate normalization in May 2020 with a 25 basis points ("bps") hike followed by another similar hike in July 2022 to increase OPR to 2.25%. In its statement, BNM also reiterated that its rate normalization will be continued at a measured and gradual pace to ensure continuous support to sustainable economic growth in the country. The United States ("US") Federal Reserve ("Feds") started its interest rates hike earlier in March 2022 with a 25 bps hike followed by a 50 bps hike in May 2025 and a higher 75 bps hikes each in June 2022 and July 2022.

Manager's report

For the financial period from 1 November 2021 to 31 July 2022 (cont'd)

C. Market Review (cont'd)

At the beginning of the period, the local bond market went through a significant sell-off between mid-March 2022 and beginning May 2022. This was largely driven by global rise in bond yields due to rising US Treasury yields as market started to account in the start of interest rate hikes by the US Feds. The 10-year Malaysian Government Securities ("MGS") reached a high of 4.45% in May 2022, an 89 bps increase from end-December 2021. The rise saw similar adjustments in corporate Sukuk yields leading to weakening valuations of the asset. However, sentiment towards bond market turned in mid-June 2022 to see the US Treasury yields rallied 22 to 58 bps lower after the US Feds has hiked interest rates by a total of 150 bps and market started to show recession concerns. The 10-year MGS rallied to a low of 4.12% on healthier inflows and driving the recovery in local corporate Sukuk valuations toward the end of the period.

D. Market Outlook & Strategy

We expect the local bond market to continue to see some strengthening in the next 6 months as market adjusted to a less hawkish hikes by BNM than initially expected and recession concerns grow over the US and other developed market economies. Supply and energy disruptions from the Ukraine-Russian war and China zero-Covid lockdowns measures in major industrious regions continue to hamper economic activities in developed economies while fuelling inflation despite rate hikes by its central banks. Recession concerns have seen the long-end US Treasury yields dropped while short-end yields rise on interest rates hikes to see an inversion on the curve which is normally taken as an indicator of rising market expectations of a potential recession in the US.

On monetary policy, following the 50bps of cumulative OPR hike in May 2022 and July 2022, we expect just one more 25 bps hike by BNM in September to bring OPR to 2.50% for the rest of the year. The emphasis on a measured and gradual pace of OPR increases by BNM is an indication that the central bank is likely to adopt a more accommodative hike in 2022 to ensure it does not derailed the domestic economic recovery amidst a volatile global economic scenarios.
