C. Market Review

On 3 May 2023, Bank Negara Malaysia ("BNM") resumed its rate hike cycle by raising the Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") by 25 basis points ("bps") to the pre-pandemic level of 3.0% after pausing in the previous 2 Monetary Policy Committee ("MPC") meetings. This move came on the back of resilient domestic economic activities and firm demand conditions that drive core inflation at elevated levels. Similar to previous statement, BNM remains downbeat on global economy prospects but highlighted some positives from a stronger-than-expected rebound of China's economy and strong labour market conditions.

D. Market Outlook and Strategies

BNM forecasts economic growth of 4.0 - 5.0% in 2023 (2022: 8.7%), driven by firm domestic demand, better labour market conditions, pickup in tourist arrivals as well as continued implementation of multi-year projects. Both headline and core inflation are expected to moderate averaging between 2.8 - 3.8% in 2023 but would remain above historical average. The balance of risk to the inflation outlook is highly subject to any domestic policy changes on price controls and subsidies, financial market development as well as global commodity prices. Our economic research expects OPR to be kept at 3.00% for the rest of the year.

E. Investment Strategies

The Manager monitors the liquidity requirements closely in order to place money market deposits in appropriate tenures which will satisfy the liquidity requirements and also position of the Fund to capitalise on any profit rate movement. The Manager also actively looks for products from licensed financial institutions that provide better yields. Hence, the Manager has resorted to maintain the deposit placement on short tenure basis to cater possibility of redemption from investor in the nearest future.
