7. Key Risks

Specific Risks of the Fund

Credit and Default Risk

This risk relates to the creditworthiness of a financial institution or an issuer and its expected ability to make timely payments of profit and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the financial institution or issuer may impact the value as well as liquidity of the Islamic deposits, Islamic money market instruments or sukuk. In the case of rated sukuk, this may lead to a credit downgrade. In the event a financial institution or an issuer defaults on its obligations, i.e. unable to service timely payments of profit and/or pay the principal amount upon maturity, this may result in the loss of capital and/or profit, thus reducing the value of the Fund. The Manager will conduct ongoing monitoring of the financial institution's or issuer's credit ratings.

Islamic deposits that the Fund has placed with financial institutions are also exposed to default risk. If the financial institutions become insolvent, the Fund may suffer capital losses with regards to the capital invested and profit foregone, causing the performance of the Fund to be adversely affected. Placement with financial institution will also be made based on prudent selection.

Equity Specific Risk

Prices of a particular Shariah-compliant equity may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies such as adverse financial performance, news of a possible merger or loss of key personnel of a company. Any adverse price movements of such Shariah-compliant equity will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.

Profit Rate Risk

Profit rate risk refers to the impact of profit rate changes on the valuation of sukuk, Islamic money market instruments and Islamic deposits. When profit rates rise, sukuk and Islamic money market instruments prices generally decline and this may lower the market value of the Fund's investment in sukuk and Islamic money market instruments. The reverse may apply when profit rates fall.

Profit rate fluctuations affect the Islamic deposits' returns of the Fund. Profit rates offered by the financial institutions will fluctuate according to the overnight rate policy determined by Bank Negara Malaysia and this has direct correlation with the Fund's investment in Islamic deposits. The Fund's future reinvestment in Islamic deposits will benefit from the higher profit rate and in the event of falling profit rates, the Fund's future investment in Islamic deposits will be reinvested at lower profit rates which in turn will reduce the Fund's potential returns.

Shariah-compliant Equity-related Securities Risk

The Fund may invest in Shariah-compliant equity-related securities equivalent to shares such as Shariah-compliant warrants. The price of Shariah-compliant warrants is typically linked to the underlying stocks. However, the price and performance of such Shariah-compliant warrants will generally fluctuate more than the underlying stocks because of the greater volatility of the warrants market. Generally, as the Shariah-compliant warrants have a limited life, they will depreciate in value as they approach their maturity date, assuming that all other factors remain unchanged. Shariah-compliant warrants that are not exercised at maturity will become worthless and will negatively affect the NAV of the Fund.

The Fund's investment in Shariah-compliant ADRs and Shariah-compliant GDRs are also subject to the same risks as the Shariah-compliant equity shares of companies they are issued for and will fluctuate in value due to market, economic, political and other factors. Shariah-compliant ADRs and Shariah-compliant GDRs are exposed to counterparty risks in the handling of the depositary receipts, may have differing accounting regimes from underlying assets, additional regulatory scrutiny, and may face unequal voting rights or economic interests relative to their underlying Shariah-compliant shares. The prices of Shariah-compliant ADRs and Shariah-compliant GDRs may diverge from the price of their underlying shares. Any adverse price movements of such Shariah-compliant ADRs and Shariah-compliant GDRs will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.

Currency Risk

As the investments of the Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund, i.e. MYR, any fluctuation in the exchange rate between the base currency of the Fund and the currencies in which the investments are denominated may have an impact on the value of these investments. Investors should be aware that if the currencies in which the investments are denominated depreciate against the base currency of the Fund, this will have an adverse effect on the NAV of the Fund in the base currency of the Fund and vice versa. Investors should note that any gains or losses arising from the fluctuation in the exchange rate may further increase or decrease the returns of the investment.

Country Risk

Investments of the Fund in any countries may be affected by changes in the economic and political climate, restriction on currency repatriation or other development in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund invests in. For example, if the Fund invests a significant portion of its assets in issuers located in a single country, a limited number of countries, or a particular geographic region, it assumes the risk that economic, political and social conditions in those countries or that region may have a significant impact on the Fund's investment performance. This in turn may cause the NAV of the Fund or prices of Units to fall.

Over-the-counter ("OTC") Counterparty Risk

OTC counterparty risk is the risk associated with the other party to an OTC Islamic derivative transaction not meeting its obligations. If the counterparty to the OTC Islamic derivative transaction is unable to meet or otherwise defaults on its obligations (for example, due to bankruptcy or other financial difficulties), the Fund may be exposed to significant losses greater than the cost of the Islamic derivatives. The risk of default of a counterparty is directly linked to the creditworthiness of that counterparty. Should there be a downgrade in the credit rating of the OTC Islamic derivatives' counterparty, the Manager will evaluate the situation and reassess the creditworthiness of the counterparty. The Manager will take the necessary steps in the best interest of the Fund.

Risk Associated with Investment in Islamic Collective Investment Schemes

Investing in Islamic collective investment schemes may be more costly to the Fund than if the Fund had invested in the underlying investments directly as the Fund will indirectly be paying the fees and expenses of the Islamic collective investment schemes in addition to the Fund's direct fees and expenses. Investing in other Islamic collective investment schemes may subject the Fund to the risk that (i) the valuations of the Fund may not reflect the true value of the underlying Islamic collective investment schemes at a specific time which could result in significant losses or inaccurate pricing for the Fund and/or (ii) the valuation of the underlying Islamic collective investment schemes may not be available as at the relevant valuation point for the Fund. The Fund's investments in Islamic collective investment schemes may also subject the Fund to additional risks (such as risk associated with the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment scheme) than if the Fund would have invested directly in the underlying investments of the Islamic collective investment schemes. The risk associated with the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes includes but are not limited to the risk of non-adherence to the investment objective, strategy and policies of the Islamic collective investment schemes, the risk of direct or indirect losses resulting from inadequate or failed operational and administrative processes and systems of the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes, and the risk that the Islamic collective investment schemes may underperform due to poor investment decisions by the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes.

Investing in Islamic REITs involves many of the same risks associated with direct ownership of real estate, including but not limited to possible declines in real estate's value, increase in interest rates and real estate financing costs, changes in property taxes, higher operating expenses, and damages from natural or man-made disasters and fall in market rental rates. In addition, some real estate companies, including Islamic REITs, may utilise leverage. Financial leverage or debt financing (i.e. the use of financed money to increase exposure to investments without an increase in equity capital) may magnify both gains and losses of the Islamic REITs or profit and loss of companies in real estate sector. Consequently, these Islamic REITs prices may exhibit higher price volatility and thus, increase the volatility of the Fund's NAV.

Islamic ETFs are Islamic collective investment schemes designed to track a particular commodity, index or portfolio of Shariah-compliant securities, and are listed on a stock exchange. The following are the key risks of investing in Islamic ETFs:

- Tracking Error
Islamic ETFs are in general, designed to track or replicate the performance of a particular index. However, exact replication may not be possible owing to factors such as:
 - i) fees and expenses of the Islamic ETF;
 - ii) foreign exchange movements;
 - iii) the Islamic ETF may not have been construed to be exactly the same as the index, thus resulting in differences between the weighting of Shariah-compliant securities in the index and the Islamic ETF. This is due to the fact that certain Shariah-compliant securities in the index may have been omitted from the Islamic ETF's holdings or Shariah-compliant securities not in the index may be included in the Islamic ETF. Consequently, there is some divergence between the return of the Islamic ETF and the index; and
 - iv) corporate actions such as right issues.
- Islamic ETFs Trading at a Premium or Discount
While the net asset value of the Islamic ETF is a key factor influencing the price of the Islamic ETF, it is also determined by the investors' supply and demand on the secondary market. Thus, an Islamic ETF may be traded on the secondary market at a price that is at a discount or a premium to the net asset value of the Islamic ETF portfolio. This discrepancy may be accentuated in uncertain or volatile financial/economic conditions.

Any adverse price movement of such Islamic collective investment schemes will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.

Islamic Derivatives Risk

Islamic derivatives, if any, will only be used for the purpose of hedging the Fund's portfolio from certain anticipated losses such as those resulting from unfavourable exchange rate movements. However, every hedge comes with a cost. In a move to mitigate the risk of uncertainty, the Fund is now exposed to the risk of opportunity loss. Once hedged, the Fund cannot take full advantage of favourable exchange rate movements. If the exposure which the Fund is hedging against makes money, the act of hedging would have typically reduced the potential returns of the Fund. On the other hand, if the exposure which the Fund is hedging against losses money, the act of hedging would have reduced the loss, if successfully hedged.

Reclassification of Shariah Status Risk

This risk refers to the risk that the currently held Shariah-compliant equities in the Fund may be reclassified as Shariah non-compliant in the periodic review of the equities by the Shariah Advisory Council of the Securities Commissions Malaysia, the Shariah adviser or the Shariah boards of the relevant Islamic indices. If this occurs, the Manager will take the necessary steps to dispose such equities. There may be opportunity loss to the Fund due to the Fund not being allowed to retain the excess capital gains derived from the disposal of the Shariah non-compliant equities. The value of the Fund also may be adversely affected in the event of a disposal of Shariah non-compliant equities at a price lower than the investment cost. Please refer to “Shariah Investment Guidelines” in the prospectus of the Fund for details on the treatment of gains and losses as a result of the reclassification of Shariah non-compliant equities.

Investors are reminded that the risks listed above may not be exhaustive and if necessary, they should consult their adviser(s), e.g. bankers, lawyers, Shariah advisers, stockbrokers or independent professional advisers for a better understanding of the risks.

For more details, please refer to section 3 in the prospectus for the general and specific risks of investing in the Fund.

Note: If your investments are made through an institutional unit trust scheme adviser (“Distributor”) which adopts the nominee system of ownership, you would not be deemed to be a unit holder under the deed and as a result, your rights as an investor may be limited. Accordingly, we will only recognize the Distributor as a unit holder of the Fund and the Distributor shall be entitled to all the rights conferred to it under the deed.

8. Valuation of Investment

The Fund is valued once every business day after the close of the market in which the portfolio of the Fund is invested for the relevant day but not later than the end of the next business day.

As such, the daily price of the Fund for a particular business day will not be published on the next business day but will instead be published 2 business days later (i.e., the price will be 2 days old).

Investors will be able to obtain the unit price of the Fund from www.maybank-am.com.my. Alternatively, the Manager’s client servicing personnel can be contacted at 03-2297 7888.

9. Exiting from Investment

Submission of Redemption Request	The cut-off time for redemption of units shall be at 4.00 p.m. on a business day. Note: The Manager’s distributors may set an earlier cut-off time for receiving applications in respect of any dealing in Units. Remittance of Redemption Proceeds	The Manager shall remit the redemption proceeds to the account held in the name of the unit holder(s).

10. Fund Performance

1. The average total returns of the Fund

Note: Basis of calculation and assumption made in calculating the returns:

NAV t refers to NAV at the end of the period. NAV t-1 refers to NAV at the beginning of the period.

Average total return for the financial year ended 31 May

Fund	-6.03	0.10
Benchmark	3.88	3.95

Note: *Period from 21 May 2021 (commencement date)

Capital return =	$\frac{\text{NAV per unit at the end of the period}}{\text{NAV per unit at the beginning of the period}} - 1$
Income return =	$\frac{\text{Income distribution per unit}}{\text{NAV per unit on ex-date}}$
Total return =	$(1 + \text{Capital return}) \times (1 + \text{Income return}) - 1$
